VI. Your Rights

I understand that:

- This nomination is based on my necessity. First Medical does not impose or make it a condition of receiving treatment, payment, membership enrollment, or eligibility for benefits.
- I may revoke this nomination at any time by giving written notice to First Medical at least five (5) business days in advance. If I revoke this nomination, it will not affect any action First Medical has taken prior to receiving written notice.
- Once my Protected Health Information has been given to the person or organization specified in box III of this form, the information in the person's possession may not be protected by the regulations of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) or any other federal or local law that protects the privacy of health information.
- First Medical will not be treating someone as your Authorized Representative if we have reason to believe that: (1) You may be subject to domestic violence, abuse, or neglect by your Authorized Representative; (2) Treating the person as your Authorized Representative may place you in danger; or (3) In the exercise of First Medical professional judgment, First Medical decides that it is not in your best interest to treat the person as your Authorized Representative.
- This request will expire on the date specified in box V of this form or upon revocation.
- I may request a copy of this signed form.

VII. Certification

I, _____ have had a full opportunity to read and understand the contents of this form. I freely and voluntarily release First Medical from any and all legal liability that may arise from the nomination of the Authorized Representative(s). I understand that by signing this document, I authorize First Medical to allow my Authorized Representative(s) to act on my behalf as described above.
